

SPECIFICATIONS FOR THE ORGANIZATION OF “WOMEN IN COOLING VIDEO COMPETITION”

PREAMBLE

These Specifications are the general regulations which govern the conditions of organization and the holding of the competition organized by AREA

Basic principle

- The participant must be:

- Registered with a RAC national association specializing member of AREA

- The contents

- The duration of the video does not exceed 10 minutes
- Sound and picture quality must be clear, even with a smartphone
- Any language used in EU

- The deposit of the video

- The deadline for submitting the video is Saturday May 13th, 2023 at midnight
- The video must be posted privately on AREA's Facebook page: "AREA"

Competition Theme

- The subject of the video is the handling of a refrigeration, air conditioning and heat pumps installation by carrying out one or more of the following operations:

- Installation
- Commissioning
- Leak test
- Evacuation
- Load
- Recovery
- Brazing
- Repair of a breakdown

Evaluation criteria

The evaluation criteria are:

- The use of the necessary devices and tools
- The use of security means
- The correct explanation of the task to be performed

The evaluation committee

- AREA Board of Directors
- AREA Task Force and Working Group Skills
- AREA representatives in INWIC International women in cooling initiative

The judges will meet on the 25th and 26th of May in Estonia to decide the winner.

AREA Commitment

The winner will obtain a certificate of appreciation and an amount of 1000 euros which will be given to the winner in Milan during the XX European Conference 8th -9th June 2023 by the World Refrigeration Day secretariat.

AREA, through ATF, will sponsor flight, accommodation and fee to the event.

The name of the winner will be known on May 26 during the AREA general assembly.

The competition will be promoted on March 8th (International women's day) through AREA media channels and on March 14th at Women in Cooling event which will be held in London.